

LAUDING OHIO'S CHARMS.

SONS OF THE BUCKEYE STATE AT DINNER.

ADDRESSES BY GENERAL BURNETT, PRESIDENT OF THE OHIO SOCIETY, JOSEPH H. CHATEAU, GOVERNOR BUSHNELL AND OTHERS—AN ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING.

The banquet hall at Delmonico's was last evening given by the Ohio Society in the decade in which it has annually called together all the New-York sons of the Buckeye State to celebrate the virtues of their native commonwealth.

In point of numbers, distinguished guests, conviviality and enthusiasm, last night's dinner must be put down as an undoubted success.

THOSE WHO WERE THERE.

At the centre of the speaker's table, just beneath the shield of Ohio, draped with the flag of the Union, sat General Henry L. Burnett, the president of the society. Bishop Henry C. Potter sat at his right, while Governor Asa S. Bushnell, of Ohio, occupied the seat at his left. Four members of the Governor's staff, Adjutant-General H. A. Adams, Colonel Henry H. Armstrong, Colonel C. H. Wing and Colonel C. E. Burke, also occupied seats at the head table, together with Joseph H. Chateau, Judge A. C. Cox, J. M. Richardson, ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster, Robert E. McKisson, Mayor of Cleveland,

GENERAL HENRY L. BURNETT.

P. Tecumseh Sherman, General Wager Swaine, Wilson M. Day and J. H. Hoyt, once a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Ohio.

At six long tables sat more than two hundred members of the society, presided over by G. E. Armstrong and Mahlon Chance at table A, A. J. C. Foy and Colonel W. L. Brown at table B, A. D. A BIT PERSONAL.

WE DON'T BELIEVE, HOWEVER, THAT AN ANCIENT CYNIC

Who Says Other People's Affairs Don't Interest Us—Falls Always Interested in Each Other's Doings—Hence This Matter, Taken from Their Private Life, We Are Sure Will Interest the World Amazingly.

Dover, N. H.—A cynic of old once said—"Other people's affairs are tedious."

We believe, on the contrary, that there is nothing so interesting to us as what happens to other people.

We are sure, therefore, that this will prove interesting reading.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Grant, who reside at 490 Central Ave., Dover, N. H., both talk unreservedly of the matter.

"Three years ago," said Mrs. Grant, "I was severely attacked by Gripe, which after a long period of illness terminated in a complete case of nervous prostration. I became greatly reduced in flesh, and was rapidly growing weaker and less able to work about the house.

"At last, after being compelled to stop work entirely, my health steadily declined.

"Having heard of the wonderful curative properties contained in Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I concluded to give it a trial. After taking one bottle I was greatly improved, and before the third bottle was gone I was able to do about my work as usual.

"I am now in the best of health, and my blood and nerve remedy in a chronic case of nervous indigestion with the most gratifying results. I can sincerely recommend it to all who are daily suffering from this horrible malady.

"It aids digestion, strengthens the stomach and builds up the entire nervous system at the same time. My wife, with heretofore, has been the means of properly directing some poor sufferer to pursue the right course."

Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the prescription of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases; hence of necessity, is perfectly adapted to cure just these chronic complaints. Its discovery, Dr. Green, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

making things lively during the progress of the dinner proper. Every member of the city government present received a present of a napkin, inscribed with some appropriate sentiment. The author of these "Epigrams" was unduly modest and refused to accept of the honor. One of the ditties refers to Theodore Roosevelt and the first four lines of it ran thus:

Hitt! Hitt! Hitt! Here is the boy man, Be careful how you drink with him; he'll catch you if he smiles and frank and open as the side door used to be. He wears plain clothes, and he's so it now. He's a man of all the sentiments referred to were in the same playful vein, evidently intended to help "digestion wait on appetite."

THE PRESIDENT'S WELCOME.

The president in rising to offer the usual words of welcome to the members and guests was received with sustained applause. Regarding the Ohio Society of New-York, the president was glad to tell them, he said, that the association financially and in number of members was sound and strong. Whether or not General Burnett in this emphasizing the state of the society, was unduly modest and refused to accept of the honor. Whether or not General Burnett in this emphasizing the state of the society, was unduly modest and refused to accept of the honor. One of the ditties refers to Theodore Roosevelt and the first four lines of it ran thus:

Hitt! Hitt! Hitt! Here is the boy man, Be careful how you drink with him; he'll catch you if he smiles and frank and open as the side door used to be. He wears plain clothes, and he's so it now. He's a man of all the sentiments referred to were in the same playful vein, evidently intended to help "digestion wait on appetite."

THE PRESIDENT'S WELCOME.

The president in rising to offer the usual words of welcome to the members and guests was received with sustained applause. Regarding the Ohio Society of New-York, the president was glad to tell them, he said, that the association financially and in number of members was sound and strong.
